

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Reader's Response

Reader's Response # 1

Book Name: _____

Focus Question (Circle One):

Author's Purpose	Summary	Character Study
Making Connections	Problem/Solution	Predictions

---

---

---

---

---

---

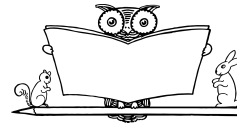

---

---

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Reader's Response

Reader's Response # 2

Book Name: _____

Focus Question (Circle One):

Author's Purpose	Summary	Character Study
Making Connections	Problem/Solution	Predictions

---

---

---

---

---

---

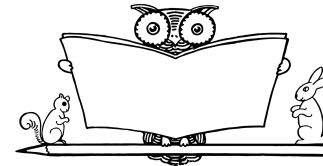

---

---

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Reader's Response

Exemplar Reader's Response # 1

Book Name: Pinky and Rex and the Spelling Bee

Focus Question (Circle One):

- Character Study

The main character in the story is Pinky. Pinky is feeling worried because he is afraid of not becoming the spelling bee champion. I know this because during lunch, Pinky did not touch his food and is not saying much to his friends at the table.

---

Exemplar Reader's Response # 2

Book Name: Ish by Peter Reynolds

Focus Question (Circle One):

- Problem

The problem in the Story Ish is that the main character Marisol no longer wants to draw because his brother Ramone makes fun of his drawing. He goes from loving drawing to hating drawing. The problem is solved when his sister makes him realize that he can see drawings in a different way. Marisol begins to love drawing again.